

Connect. Learn. Advance. New York State Association for Food Protection

Association Awards

Nominations are open for the following NYSAFP Awards through June 1. Nomination forms can be found at NYSAFP.com and returned to Executive Secretary Amy Rhodes, amy.rhodes@hphood.com.

Emmett R. Gauhn Memorial Award, Established 1955

In memory of Emmett R. Gauhn, one of the founders of the NYSAFP (NYSAMFS). He served as the first President of the Association for four years 1922-26. Had an outstanding career as Chief of the Rochester Milk and Food Section, Commissioner of the Rochester Welfare Department and Chairman of the New York State Youth Comm. His foresight and leadership were an inspiration to all who knew him.

Qualifications: Member in good standing of the NYSAFP. Nominee must have made an outstanding contribution to the NYSAFP or in field of endeavor. Selection by the Awards Committee.

Dr. Paul B. Brooks Memorial Award, Established 1956

In memory of Dr. Paul B. Brooks, Deputy Commissioner of Health, NYS Health Department 1925-46. His devotion to the cause of progressive milk sanitation continues to serve as an inspiration and guide to all members of the NYSAFP.

Qualifications: Member in good standing of the NYSAFP, Member in good standing of an Affiliate and who has contributed to the welfare and progress of an affiliate.

Procedures: Council Chairman solicits nominations from the affiliates. Selection made by the Awards Committee with Council Chairman as a Member of the Awards Committee.

Howard B. Marlatt Memorial Award, Established 1972

In memory of Howard B. Marlatt, founder and Past President of the Orange County Sanitarians Association. Member of the NYSAFP Board at the time of his death, July 10, 1969, Chairman of the Laboratory Practices Committee for three years.

Qualifications: NYSAFP membership preferred, but not required. Nominee must have made an outstanding contribution in the field of dairy and food laboratory work.

Procedures: Selection made by Laboratory Practices Committee.

William V. Hickey Memorial Award, Established 1978

In memory of William V. Hickey, sanitarian and editor of "Environmental News Digest." His devotion to the food industry to improve the quality of foods continues to serve as a guide to all members of the food industry and our Association.

Qualifications: NYSAFP membership preferred but not required. Nominee must have made an outstanding contribution to the improvement of the food industry.

Procedures: Selection by the Food Committee.

Dr. Theodore H. Reich Memorial Award, Established 1972

In memory of Dr. Theodore H. Reich who for many years was Division Supervisor for the Country Milk Section of the NYS Health Department. Member of the Farm Methods, NDPC, Council Delegate and Secretary of the Orange County Sanitarians Association; died while serving December 1971.

Qualifications: 1. NYSAMFP membership preferred, but not required 2. Nominee must have given outstanding service improving the safety and quality of milk while working with farms 3. Open to but not limited to, CMI's, QMPS personnel, veterinarians, Dairy Equipment Technicians, and NYS Agriculture and Markets employees.

Procedures: Selection made by the Farm Methods Committee.

George "Sid" Miller, Jr. Affiliate of the Year Award, Established 1986

In memory of George "Sid" Miller, Jr. of the New York state Department of Health who founded the Long Island Association of Milk, Food and Environmental Sanitarians in March 1981 and served as its' first President.

Qualifications: Must be an active affiliate of the NYSAFP and meet the criteria outlined on the affiliate award application.

Procedures: Each affiliate is provided an application. Completed form is given to the Executive Secretary, selection made by NYSAFP Board of Directors. Award is presented at council luncheon at the Annual Conference and announced again at the AC Awards Banquet.

www.NYSAFP.com

info@NYSAFP.com

www.Facebook.com/NewYorkStateAssociationforFoodProtection